Heavily annotated promotional map and guide for Albert Z. Taft's West Hollywood Vista Tract, which was offered in 1919 and offered for sale in October 1920.

Includes promotional details on the verso.

The map notes that the subdivision:

CONTAINS SEVENTY LOTS fronting on a handsome boulevard and three streets, graded, paved improved and gutters. Ornamental lights and palms in spacious parkways. The property slopes gently to the south, thus insuring perfect drainage from the winter rains. It commands a magnificent, unobstructed view of Hollywood, Los Angeles and the ocean, which on a clear day can easily be seen. Nearby foothills shelter this tract from the winter frosts and winds making it the choicest homesite in Hollywood.
