Description:

Gorgeous 2 sheet view of Jerusalem, first published in the Latin edition of Braun & Hogenberg's Civitas Orbis Terrarum in 1588. This example has German text on the verso. The represents and imaginary plan of ancient Jerusalem and it suburbs at the time Christ's birth. The map is based upon the work of Andrichom, but is oriented to the north. It shows the fortified city, buildings, battles, encampments outside of the city, and a host of other details. Unquestionably one of the most sought after and decorative of all Holy Land views. Offered in two sheets, unjoined, in overall excellent condition, with only minor reinforcement to the lower fold of both sheets.
