Description:

Interesting map of the West Indies and Gulf Coast region, showing Florida, the Yucatan, coast of Central America and South America. Fort Louis and Lake St. Joseph are shown along with St. Louis Bay and Bernard's Bay, near modern Galveston. Nice detail on the Gulf Coast and an interesting projection of Florida, including an odd St. John's River. Nice detail in the Caribbean and Central America. A from G. Robinson's North American and West Indian Gazetteer.
