Description:

Nice example of Carey & Lea's map of Florida, one of the earliest obtainable separate maps of Florida following its admission as a Territory in July 1821. No counties are shown. Divisions are East and West Florida. The interior river system is still largely anecdote and conjecture. Two roads lead east out of St. Augustine, one to Rollstown on the St. Johns River and the other to Ivitachua. A number of early northern forts are listed, including Ft. Barancas, Ft. Gadsden or Collinton, Ft. St. Marks, Ft. Poppa, Picolota Ft., and a British Fort erected during the war on the Appalachicola River. A handful of early towns are noted. Nice detail in the Keys. The surrounding text is very interesting, especially given the proximity of the publication of the map to Florida's admission as a Territory. Fold split enters into the image by about 3 inches from the top. Carey & Lea's Atlas is highly prized not only for its cartographic information but the marvelous information about each of the states and territories included. The atlas was issued in 6 editions in English, French & German between 1822 and 1827.
