Description:

A marvelous regional map of US, bounded by the Mississippi and Missouri Rivers in the west, Lake Michigan and Lake Erie in the North and extending south to include most of North Carolina.

All told, the map covers Illinois, Indiana, Ohio, Kentucky, Tennessee and parts of West Virginia, North Carolina, Pennsylvania, Wisconsin, Iowa, Missouri and Arkansas. The map is centered on the Ohio River and includes many early forts, Indian Tribes, roads, counties and placename, most in English or Indian nomenclature. Chicagou is named. An essential map for Kentucky, Tennessee and Midwest collectors.

Cassini was a map publisher in Rome in the late 18th and early 19th century. His important atlas Nuovo Atlante Geografico Universale included gores for a pair of 33cm globes.
