Description:

Nice example of Jansson's map of Lithuania, including the inset of the Dniepr River, based upon Blaeu's four sheet map. Highly detailed, extending from Cracow to the Baltic in the west and Kiev and Smolenzlo in the east. A scare and highly sought after map. Narrow margins and old tape repairs in two places on the upper margins, and a few minor tears, primarily confined to the margins, but in all, a good example in old color.
